Paul C Dwyer – World-Renowned Expert on Risk & Cyber

Paul is recognised as one of the world's foremost experts on cyber security, risk and privacy. He is the CEO of Cyber Risk International and the Founder & President of the International Cyber Threat Task Force. An globally-renowned public speaker and author, Paul is an advisor to NATO, numerous governments and many intelligence agencies including DEFCOM, the National Counter Terrorism Security Office and the National Crime Agency. As an accomplished serial entrepreneur, Paul was identified by Business and Finance as one of Ireland's Top 100 CEOs. He will open attendee's eyes to the realities of risk and cyber, and share his views on what managers and leaders (regardless of organisation size or sector) absolutely need to know, and do, in 2019.

Caspar Berry – Global Guru on Uncertainty & Decision Making

Caspar is one of the world's leading authorities on the topics of Uncertainty and Decision-making. He has delivered more than 2,000 speeches in over 30 countries to clients including Google, Visa, Paypal, Volvo, Shell, Microsoft, Diageo, Tesco, PWC, McDonalds and Redbull. He is a former professional poker player who lived and worked in Las Vegas for three years and went on to become the poker advisor on the movie Casino Royale. Prior to that Caspar studied economics at Cambridge University and built and sold his own company to a PLC. His presentations make people think. He opens minds to the power of new ideas and the value of taking risks and seizing opportunities. Caspar will provide a timely insight into how we can rise to the challenge of the unknown.

Dr Judith Gillespie CBE – Pioneer for Change

Now a member of the Garda Policing Authority, Judith joined the RUC in 1982, served during the worst of the Troubles and rose to become the first ever female Chief Officer in the history of NI policing. Judith was Chair of the board of the 2013 Belfast World Police and Fire Games, the third largest sporting event in terms of athlete numbers in the world and was awarded CBE in 2014. A graduate of Cambridge University and the FBI's National Executive Institute, Judith is now a Visiting Professor at Ulster University. She has led from the front in some of the most challenging circumstances imaginable and driven change that has required great resilience on her part. Judith will reflect on these experiences and share the leadership lessons that she has learned along the way.

Dave Linton – Award-winning Entrepreneur & Innovator

In 2015 Dave learned that most children in care transport their worldly belongings in a bin bag and he set out to do something about it. With £480 and zero business experience he started Madlug (Make a Difference Luggage) with a mission to help every child in care travel with dignity. In 2016 Dave was listed as one of the 50 New Radicals by The Guardian and, following a successful crowdfunding campaign in 2017, he was invited to brunch with Sir Richard Branson! Based in Lurgan, Madlug is gaining traction across the UK & Ireland and the business now aims to give away 20,000 bags to children in care by July 2019. Dave will share the Madlug story and how it is attempting to help young people who are facing true uncertainty.

Professor Neil Gibson – Economist & International Conference Speaker

Neil is Chief Economist for EY in Ireland, a frequent media commentator and a sought-after speaker on the international conference stage. Prior to his role with EY, Neil headed up the Northern Ireland Economic Policy Centre at Ulster University where he is a Visiting Professor. Before that he was a Director in Oxford Economics for 10 years, during which time he led consultancy projects for many of the world's largest companies and also undertook significant public sector research projects. A truly engaging orator, Neil will Chair the Summit and offer his own reflections on the current economic situation as well as sharing his views on how managers and leaders can, and must, operate effectively within a consistently unpredictable and chaotic environment.
